CONVELO
INSURANCE GROUP

Assisted and Independent Senior Living

Convelo brings decades of experience providing insurance for senior living clients, supported by deep understanding of the industry today. Our expertise and strategic alliances put us in a prime position to offer both package insurance and workers' compensation.

Best-in-Class Coverage

Our exclusive senior living program is a comprehensive package solution designed to meet the unique needs of assisted and independent living communities. The program includes essential coverages such as property, liability (including abuse and professional), auto, and excess, offering a robust and competitive option that stands out in the marketplace.

Target accounts include:

- Nonprofit senior living organizations
- Assisted and independent living facilities with ambulatory residents age 55 and up
- Best-in-class facilities with multi-line premiums $25k and up
- Operations in all states except AL, AK, CA, LA, MS, WA and WY

Facilities must be in operation for at least five years with historic loss ratios consistent with well-controlled operations. Buildings must be equipped with automatic sprinkler systems.

About Convelo

Convelo Insurance Group is a trusted expert in providing tailored insurance solutions for senior living organizations. With decades of experience, our team brings deep industry knowledge and specialized risk management strategies to support both nonprofit and for-profit facilities.

We understand the complex needs of assisted and independent living communities. We are committed to delivering best-in-class coverage, responsive claims support, and dedicated service to help clients protect their operations and residents.

Easy to Extend

When you work with Convelo, you get easy access to solutions from other carriers to extend program coverage where your clients need more support. Our workers' compensation and cyber liability are popular choices for assisted and independent living clients, and we have a wide range of specialized excess and surplus options as well.

You can lean on Convelo's expertise to help you win your clients' business and trust by offering the best possible protection.

Convelo has been great to work with. They are reliable and have deep expertise in the healthcare and human services space. Their team has been able to help us get some complicated deals done. I definitely recommend working with Convelo.
